Rolf Braun.

Rolf,

It was the best year for me, I couldn't ask for more. I learned so much about you and your crazy ways. I enjoyed the work in Speech & Drama tremendously. I hope next year I will get the opportunity to work next to you again (the kiss made it all worthwhile.) Every time I get on stage everyone always asks if I am going work with you & when I say no they always say that's too bad he's a great actor! That's enough about that, all I got to say is I Love you & Respect you & I hope you never change. I hope you have a great summer and I also hope Love comes your way. Hint Hint.. Please take care of your self & may God Bless you

Love always Carole.

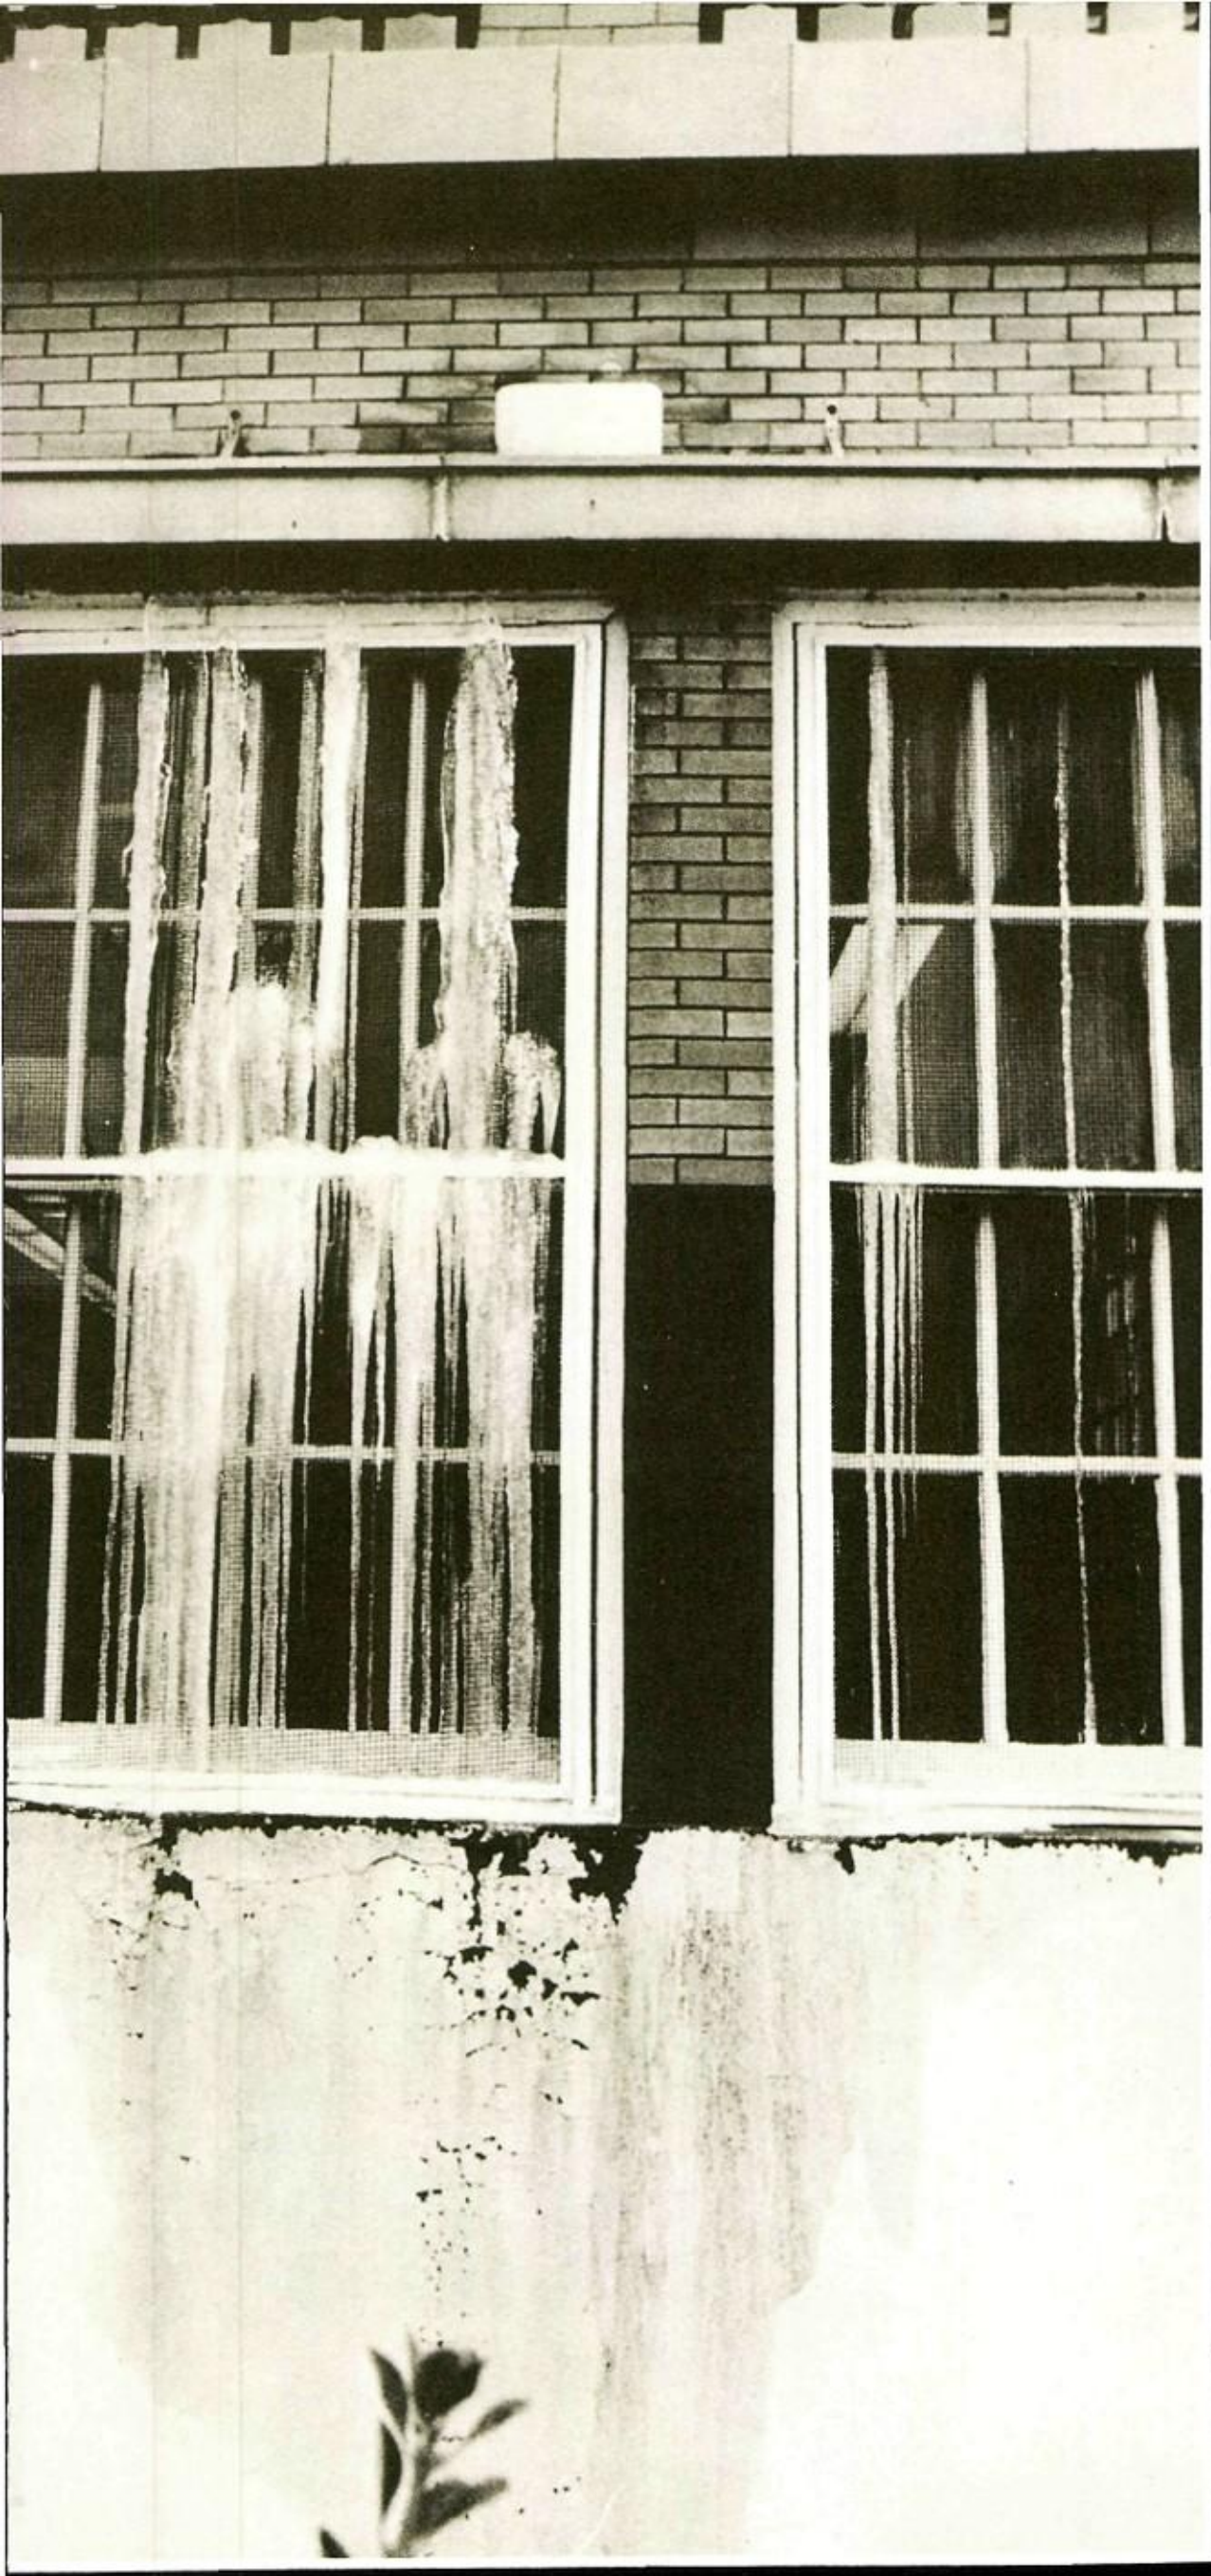
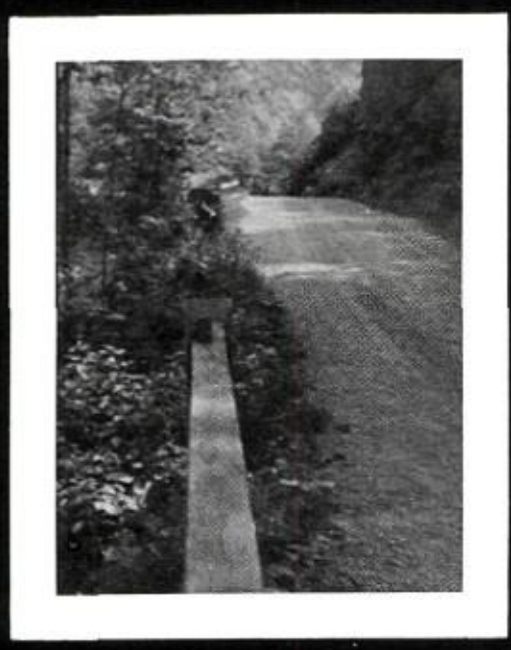
EL PASO I.S





As we continue down the path of life, we leave for other generations the impressions of our time.

Our life has been one of change as we have seen the advent of many new ideas in education.

The quarter system has freed us from specific subject requirements to a freedom of judgment as to what best suits our individual educational requirements and interests. It has allowed for graduation in less than four years, thus providing an opportunity to progress to fulfill our dreams.

We've seen the abolishment of the dress code freeing us to be ourselves in determining the impression we leave by our selection of dress and personal appearance.

The pendulum of change continues to swing as we search for newer and better ideas that will benefit our lives. If we think of yesterday without regret and look to tomorrow with hope and without fear, we are on the road to success in fulfilling our destiny.

Red, white and blue has left us for another hundred years of orange and black. This school year, the eleventh aniversary after the fiftieth year of our school, or perhaps more notably, the first anniversay after the sixtieth year of our school, was marked by the presence of a new assistant principal, a new senior class, a new junior class, a new sophomore class, a new freshman class and a new eighth grade class, a new United States President and more immediately, a new tardy policy which was abandoned after numerous complaints from parents and students. The cry that a student should not be denied an education because he is a few minutes late to class prevailed over teachers' demands to reduce the ever-increasing number of tardies.

This was not a year of landmarks or important historical events, but a year to reflect on the images and traditions which clarify and shape our existence. The enrollment was 1,800 students, an increase of 200 over last year. The pencil sharpeners still work only in the typing classes and invariably fail to work in the math classes. We still have desks carved with "Jose, CSR Class of '38."

We did well in sports with the football team taking third place the first year they were part of the 1-AAAA District. Several track stars put us on the all-state map. ROTC's battalion commander became the first brigade commander for the entire city in years. And, lest we forget, 1976 was the year cafeteria lunches were served in baskets.

European Tour Adds Culture To EPHS Students

On June 25, 1976, fifteen students from El Paso High and students from various other El Paso High Schools departed from El Paso and began their Foreign Study League tour of Europe, chaperoned by Mr. John Doran and his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Goldberg.

The group's first stop was Madrid Spain. Today Madrid is a cosmopolitan center with wide avenues and magnificent parks. After spending three days in Madrid the group's next stop was Rome, Italy, where the aroma of past civilizations still lingers over Rome's many ancient ruins. The students then traveled by bus to Florence Italy and then by train to Wangs, Switzerland. July 9th through July 13th were spent in the city of a million lights, Paris, France, where they visited the Eiffel Tower, the Louvre and Versailles. The final stops were Amsterdam, the Netherlands and London, England.

Elisabeth Haga Likes Contrast

Elisabeth Haga was a foreign exchange student who attended El Paso High School during the 1976-77 school year.

Elisabeth, who came from Oslo Norway, was very impressed by the southwestern surroundings she encountered in El Paso. "The reason I like El Paso so much is because the climate and environment are completely different from Oslo," she said. In her spare time she cross country skiis, paints and jogs along the streets of Mission Hills.

Let Us Entertain You

A variety of entertainment was available in many forms to students and the public this past year.

Movies such as, "The Omen," "A Star is Born," "All The Presidents Men," and "King Kong" were hits among El Paso High students. "All the Presidents Men" received top awards from the New York Film Critics and the National Society of Film Critics, which awarded the movie picture of the year. "Taxi Driver," a movie dealing with intense violence and "Network," a movie about the influence of television on society, were also two award-winning films.

"Roots," a novel made for TV, was the most watched television series of all time. It was based on Alex Haley's non-fiction novel, "Roots," and displayed a realistic portrayal of negro slavery. Home Box Office (HBO) a pay television network which features uninterrupted movies less than a year old, foreign films, sports, specials, and children's films was another form of entertainment offered.

Barbra Streisand, who received critical acclaim for her performance in "A Star is Born," was able to produce another top-ten musical hit. The theme from "A Star is Born," "Evergreen," was chosen best song of the year by the Golden Globe Academy. According to the Cashbox Magazine's nationwide survey, other top-ten hits of the year were "Tonight's the Night," Rod Stewart; "You Don't Have To Be A Star," Marilyn McCoo and Billy Davis Jr.; "You Make Me Feel Like Dancing," Leo Sayers; "Car Wash," Rose Royce; and "Love Me," Yvonne Elliman. Top-ten albums included "Hotel California," The Eagles; "Wings Over America," Paul McCartney and Wings; "Frampton Comes Alive," Peter Frampton; "A Night On The Town," Rod Stewart; and "A New World Record," Electric Light Orchestra.

Musical groups who payed a visit to El Paso were The Eagles, Blue Oyster Colt, Bob Seger and The Electric Light Orchestra.

Compiled by Publisher Weelky, various bestselling books were, "Passages," "Roots," "Trinity," "Raise The Titanic," and "Sleeping Murder."

Carter Wins Presidency Over Ford

Democrat Jimmy Carter defeated President Gerald R. Ford and won the presidency early November 3rd. The race was close, Carter gaining a 3 per cent margin over Ford in the popular vote. Carter won in the decisive electoral college votes.

On January 20, Carter became the 39th President of the United States, the first Deep South president elected since Zachary Taylor in 1848. Carter swept the South, winning it solidly with the exception of Virginia. That state went to Ford and was the only state Ford was able to capture in the South. Ford dominated the western states winning Utah, California, Colorado, Montana, Nebraska, South Dakota and Wyoming. Carter broke the string of Washington establishment presidents as the first president since FDR to come from a non Washington base of support.

Gaucho pants, jumpsuits, tunics and bulky sweaters were all stylish clothes seen throughout the school year. Bulky sweaters and Levi's set the mood for a typical cold football game while gaucho pants were comfortable to wear to school. Throughout the year t-shirts and jeans remained the most popular clothing for the males at EPHS.

Ceramic Savvy ▲

"Working with clay has taught me patience and, although ceramics is a time consuming hobby, I enjoy it immensely," said senior Laura Rodriguez. During her junior year Laura was enrolled in a ceramics class and she became interested in ceramics. Laura began making pinch pots, coil pots and vases. "A friend had a kiln that was not in use and thought I would appreciate the results of using it," said Laura. Since last year Laura has made various mugs, planters, ash trays and other ceramic objects.

His Heart Is In His Engine ▲

Inspired by the mechanical talents of his two uncles who own automotive mechanic shops in Mexico City, Johnny Berumen wants likewise to own a shop. After Johnny graduates next year from Technical Center and El Paso High, he plans to obtain a one-year degree from a school of auto and diesel mechanics in Phoenix, Arizona.

Flip Over Kim Strass ◀

A future in international gymnastics competition and a spot in the 1980 Olympics are part of Kim Strauss' goals after only four years of training. When freshman Kim, was ten years-old she enrolled in a two-week summer gymnastics program at the Y.W.C.A. Kim was a fast learner and decided to try out for the Sun City gymnastics team. She made the team when she was twelve and since then she has competed throughout the Southwest and has earned the reputation as being one of the best gymnasts in the state. A member of the Sunbeams Gymnastic Club, Kim works out daily from 6:30 to 9 p.m. This past November Kim competed in the Phillips '66 Bartlesville Invitational Meet where, from a field of 73 gymnasts, she captured first place on the balance beam and second best all around gymnast.

Up, Up And Away ▾

"Building a rocket requires patience and the right materials at the right time," said sophomore Brian Maddux. At least four times a year for the past four years Charles Abernathy, Allen Gilmer, Ronald Stubblefield and Brian have been launching homemade rockets. Model rocketry is a safe hobby which requires the use of lightweight materials, pre-loaded solid propellant and an electrical ignition system. Building a small rocket costs any where from sixty cents to $3. Large rockets cost as much as $20.

Head Over Heals ▴

Witnessing the skateboard trend in his neighborhood, freshman Charlie Hart watched the crowd but after two years of practice the crowd is watching him. With the $100 Charlie saved during the summer, he bought the equipment to build the two skateboards which he daily rides up and down the hilly sidewalks of Kern Place.

Bart Loves Art ▸

When most three year-old children were scribbling in coloring books or drawing stick figures, Bart Ochoa was drawing exceptional pictures of girls. Bart's drawings are now much more sophisticated. He focuses on drawing things which relate to reality and abstract drawings. The media he uses to create his art winning drawings are pen and ink, pencil and charcoal. Bart, a sophomore, served as art editor of the Creative Arts Magazine and his design was featured on the cover of the '77 magazine.

Scanlon Heads Council

Senior John Scanlon was elected by the student body to serve as president of Student Council.

John was a member of Senior and Junior National Honor Society French Club and Senior Computer Seminar.

Honors John has received include Varsity Track Letterman for three years, Scholastic Letter Winner for three years and Select Scholar Honor Roll member.

John said he sees good potential in the Student Council but when people don't care enough to go to the meetings, report back to their fellow students, give ideas or work at all, there is no possible way Student Council can succeed. John said, "People make Student Council and people wreck Student Council. It is up to the students to decide what they want to do with their Student Council."

One project completed at the beginning of the year by Student Council and the Art Department was the completion of the wooden tigers. They are spirit boosters that were placed in front of the varsity athletes' houses.

Travels Widely And Entertains Brightly

Rain, snow, sleet, or hail, the El Paso High School Tiger Band was at every Football game performing during the game.

The 104 member marching band was directed by Mr. Jesus Salcido and Mr. Ernesto Alviyar. This year the varsity band received a second division rating at the Annual Marching Band Contest at the Sun Bowl. All high school bands from the El Paso and Ysleta Independent school districts participated.

During marching season the band practiced every Monday thru Friday from 7:00 to 9:00 a.m. and sometimes at night from 6:30 to 9:00 p.m. Such long hours of practice were necessary in order to memorize the music and learn the various kinds of marching routines.

During concert season the band played at the feeder elementary schools and gave their annual Christmas concert here at school. They also marched in several parades including the New Years Day Parade.

Deadlines Will Keep Us Together

A new darkroom, new adviser and new classroom were three major changes which affected the Spur staff members. Work on the long-sought darkroom began the middle of the first quarter. The staff moved in November from room 312 to a convenient first-floor classroom which adjoins the new darkroom.

The staff incorporated a natural, down-to-earth theme in this year's book by eliminating many posed studio photographs and replacing them with candid pictures taken in familiar places. An emphasis on people-oriented pictures rather than thing-oriented pictures dominated the pages of the book.

"Suicide Drill Team" Enjoys Taking Risks

The Boys' Drill Team competed in four scheduled drill meets this year. Commanded by Col. Steve Sombrano, the drill team was made up of sixteen members and four alternates. Squad Leaders were: first squad, Major Raul Luevano, second squad, Major Manuel Ponce, third squad 1st Lt. Donald Lloyd and fourth squad, Plt Sgt. Sergio Ponce.

The four drill meets were the Burges Invitational, EPHS Invitational, Irvin Invitational and, most important, the Annual Revue and Drill Meet in May. According to Sgt. Major Allen Gilmer, "The Tiger Drill Team has long been known for its rifle manipulation and the complexities of its movements. This, plus a great risk factor in the 'do or die' rifle throwing, has given way to the emergence of the 'Suicide' Drill Team nickname."

Art Honor Draws Upon Creativity

Although it was a small group, the members gave their time to many art projects for the school, such as the background for the beauty contest, several exhibitions displayed in the cases and painting the football field for Homecoming. "A person is not required to be an artist to join the club." Instead she said, "Be creative and have creative ideas."

To earn money for the club, the members sold caramel apples.

President Pete Reiquam said, "With a willingness to work, we will learn to appreciate art more. Get into Art."

Kalevala Provides Forum For Expression

For the first time, Kalevala and the creative writing class combined to produce the literary magazine which was distributed at the end of the year.

According to Mrs. Emily Gunning, sponsor of the club, the club and the class combined because creative writing was offered only during second quarter.

Kalevala members began work on the magazine in September, long before the Creative Writing class began work on the magazine.

Kalevala members sold magazines for $1 and patron ads to pay for the magazine. They also collected and wrote stories for the magazine. Meeting after school on Thursdays, the ultimate goal for members was to enter a writing in a national contest for creative writing. Members wrote stories, poems and shared ideas with the group at the meeting.

Sophomore Bart Ochoa's design was chosen for the magazine cover. The theme was Insights-Outlooks.

BB Wins Tiger Tournament

The varsity basketball team started their pre-district season by winning the EPHS Invitational Basketball tournament December 4 by beating Amarillo Tuscosa 49-35. EPHS ran a zone defense the first half but switched to man-to-man the second half because of Tuscosa's highly effective outside shooting.

The team held opponent scoring during the tournament down to 35 points, on the average, with 37 points being scored in the championship game.

The team celebrated their first victory after they skinned the Juarez Liebres 63-38. The team then slid by the Ysleta Indians 44-42 with five seconds left in the game. In semifinal action, the team beat the Parkland Matadors 37-33 following Luis Alvarado's amazing 25 point scoring spree.

Capturing second place in the 1-AAAA District with an overall record of 6-1, the tigeresses leaped into second place in the first Lydia Patterson Invitational Tournament, held January 9. Team members deservingly earned all district titles.

During the Lydia Patterson Tournament Estella Tarin rounded up the all-tourney foward title. Rita Alvarado captured the title of all-tourney guard.

District Title members were Estella Tarin and Anita Solis; Patricia Torres and Lulu Chavez received honorable mentions.

Coach Frances Foreman headed the "ben-gals" to their second place victory. Andress took first place.

Gridders Third In Hard Season

Varsity gridders enjoyed a relatively good year this year in district competition. Before they began their district season, they played three non-district games, losing all three. The tigers won a scrimmage against Ysleta however, to help mellow their other defeats. At the homecoming game, the tigers won their first game along with their first district game. They beat the Andress Eagles 18-13 to open the season on a good note. The gridders lost the second game against the Coronado T-birds with a score of 28-8. EPHS could not be kept down for long however, and demonstrated their recuperative ability by defeating the Bowie Bears 7-0. After this defeat, the Bears went straight downhill to end their season in obscurity. They kept up their juggernaut by defeating the Irvin Rockets 20-14. The next game stopped varsity dead in their tracks however. The Burges Mustangs easily ran over the Tigers 51-6. Dissappointed, the varsity bengals lost to Jeff with a disheartening 14-13 loss. The gridders went on to end the season by losing the claw to Austin during El Paso's first snowstorm of the season with a score of 23-15.

District 1AAAA Good To Tigers

Varsity football opened their season in 1AAAA this year with a lot of peope predicting a bad year for the Tigers. Indeed, these prophecies looked true before the Tigers began district play. The Tigers began district by first defeating the Andress Eagles. The Tigers were stopped by the Coronado T-birds with a 28-8 loss. The Tigers did not let this defeat get them down however, and proved this by defeating the Bowie Bears, thus breaking the Bears undefeated record. It was straight downhill for Bowie after that game and to a lesser extent for the Tigers. Three losses and one win closed the season with the Tigers in third place.

Third's A Hard Act To Follow

El Paso's surprising performance in the new district shows the typical Tiger spirit that was evident when El Paso High was still young. El Paso High's third place was probably the most surprising part of the district season. El Paso's good players were given places in all-district, illustrating the outstanding team we had this year.

JV Gridders Varsity-Bound

B-Team football readied themselves this season for next year on varsity. To be on varsity, a person must play one season of JV football. The 76-77 season did not go very well for the JV gridders who won only two games throughout the season. However the bitterness of earlier defeats were wiped out by their two wins against Burges and Coronado.

Matmen Wrestle Against Considerable Opposition

Varsity and B-team wrestling team members enjoyed a good year under the direction of coach John Swisher. The teams had the best record they have had in two years with the varsity team ending with 4-4 record and the B-team ending with a 3-5 record. Varsity did well in state competition by winding up in tenth place, the second highest place by an El Paso school. The members of the team who went to state were Senior Frank Armandarez, Sophomore Steve Campos, Senior Danny Flores and Senior Charles Mitchell.

The team captains ths year were Danny Flores and Charles Mitchell.

Swimmers Plunge Ever Upward

The swim team improved vastly over last year with more than twice as many swimmers on the team as last year. Swimmers from every grade joined the team.

The team took on some heavy competition as they swam against Coronado, Burgess, Andress, Eastwood, Jeff, Bel Air, Irvin and Las Cruces. They also swam against other teams from Midland and Odessa.

Aside from swimming against other teams in El Paso, the team competed in the Texas Tech Invitational. The team competed against teams from all over the state. Some of the best swimmers from the team also went to the Amarillo Invitational.

Bobby Smith and Bob Licon went to regionals to represent the team. Smith swam the 50 freestyle and Licon swam the 100 butterfly.

After practicing with the Austin High Swim team at the YMCA Monday through Friday for two quarters of school, the team finished with a good record.

Soccer Team Reaches Goals

The newly-created soccer team faced a difficult beginning this, their first, year. Without a coach and uniforms, they competed with other school-sponsored teams. During the first half of their season they were 5-1, placing them in the second place. The team competed in the Southwest Soccer League.

The local Western Auto sponsored the team and the YMCA assisted them by finding them a coach.

The driving force behind education here lay within the administrative initiative of Principal Burton Johnson. Mr. Johnson was aided by Assistant Principals Manny Aguirre and William Burnside. Coordinator of Instruction and Guidance was Mr. David Rodriguez. Mr. John Doran was student activities manager. The assistant principals maintained discipline. Mr. Rodriguez's duties included organizing the curriculum and preventing the overloading of classes. Mr. Doran organized all activities involving the student body. As a whole, the admistration was disappointed with the lack of school spirit and the neglect of academics in favor of participation in sports. "But, nevertheless, it was a rewarding year," said Mr. Johnson.

Student Teacher Switch Day

On February 16, the school routine seemed normal, but after looking a little closer students realized that their own classmates had taken the roles of their teachers. For the first time in EPHS history students and teachers switched roles. Fifty- nine students participated in the human relations event conducted by ESSA. The switch day was taken seriously by both "teachers" and classes. Students followed teacher's lesson plans, took roll and performed regular duties. Birdie Gill, who took over Mrs. Stearn's class, said, "It helped me to understand what teachers go through." The main objective of the program was for students to receive insight into what teachers or administrators jobs involve and develop a mutual relationship and understanding.

Reporting Teacher's Signature

WB

For his record as teacher and administrator and his effect on the atmosphere of the school, the members of the Spur staff dedicate this yearbook to Assistant Principal Bill Burnside.

Mr. Burnside has been an assistant principal here since 1971. His association with this school began in 1963 as a social studies teacher.

He lifts weights, collects WWII memorabelia, and reads military history literature.

PICTURE ONE: The familiar WB signature is readily recognized and sometimes forged by the more desperate and daring student. PICTURE TWO: Mr. Burnside relaxes in his office between student conferences.

Ralf,
The one thing I'll miss this summer will be your lunch-time "performances". See you in Sept.
Bill

In Memory Of

Leticia Garcia

On October 14, 1976, Leticia Garcia, a sophomore, attended her regular scheduled classes. She was an average student and well liked by her classmates. Friday October 15, Leticia died. She was hit by a car. During her two years at El Paso High, Letty was involved in the major sports club and was a member of the basketball team.

What More Can I Say But, 'We're Through'

The yearbook is finally completed. I am extremely relieved. Never in my life have I assumed such a great responsibility involving such an enormous amount of work, effort and frustration.

The production of this Spur took many hours of planning, arguing and of course hard work. In the beginning it was difficult for me to become accustomed to staying after school until 5:30 in the evenings and giving up weekend time in order to work on the yearbook. But as the number of members on the staff decreased, more work time was necessary in order to meet our deadlines. Therefore, the staff began working as late as 9:00 most evenings and even as late as midnight on the weekends and holidays.

I often felt as though I could not fulfill my position as Editor and that it was not worth all the time and effort for the book only to be criticized in the end. But nevertheless I was assured and reassured that although the task of completing a yearbook was a difficult one, it must be done. And so it was finished, thanks to the combined efforts of a dedicated staff, cooperative administration and the guidance and encouragement of adviser Debbie Norris.

I especially thank the members of my staff who gave so much of themselves in order to be a part of this book. Although it was their first year working on the yearbook I feel they did a tremendous job. The staff included Emily Blaugrund, Distinctions; Allen Gilmer, Action; Sylvia Ortiz, Unity; Yolanda Villalobos, Unity and Action; Belen Fematt, Classifications; Debbie Kupfer, Staff Assistant; Laura Rodriguez, Classifications; Jim Schwarzbach, Carlos Veytia, Photographers and Sam Kupfer, darkroom assistant. Finally, I thank Miss Debbie Norris for not only her help as an adviser but for her friendship as well.

Ralph, Well I can say that it has been an experience that will not be forgotten. Some pretty silly times have passed us by and I'm sure that next year will be worse. Have a fun summer and see ya next year.

Love Diane

A Long bumpy road leads to the ultimate actualization of an individual. Whether you are confronted with disillusionment or pure ecstasy we hope this Spur will recapture the images of 1977.

Rolf,

This is my last couple of day
here, & I'd like to say that I'm going to miss you especially your sence of humor
I will probly see you in the seemmer
But incase I don't Take care of yourself good luck the Rest of your school years & Take car

always a friend

Rolf,
(excuse the messy name but Richard made me do it)
I'm really going to miss you next year when we aren't going to do plays together. It just won't be the same
if I'm in another play and someone else is my father.
Good Luck in your Singing and acting for as long as you
stick with them.
Love,
Stephanie
Carr

Rolf;
You are one of the nicest people I know. You have a truly lovely voice, and it's been great fun working with you. Thank-you so much for escorting me at Spring Fiesta, it was an even better time (Ha Ha!) I know we'll have an even better next year!! Keep looking around!
Take care
God Bless
Love Racy

Rolf
This has been a great year. I must say that has been a pleasure to work with a person with your talents in choir and drama. Thank you for being such a great friend. Take care and have a wonderful summer.
Love,
Christy

Rolf,
It's been a great year — hopefully better. I wish you much success in the future, dedication and perseverance should be on top next year. Hmmmm

Rolf - loved singing with you in choir and have a beautiful voice and your butter will make all this year. You'll will miss you state this next year, but always, I know all remember we but always, I know you.
Madeline

Rolf!
Getting to know you this past year has truly been an experience! You're a great guy and I hope we can do more together next year. Even though I haven't known you a long time, we've done alot together. Remember the drunk cowboy in Jerpe? Love me? Surprised? Miss me? And Diane's birthday at Farell's? And then Diane's near rape (no-joke!) Well, I hope next year is at least as good or even better. Have a great summer, and I'll see you in school next year. Good luck, and God Bless you Always. Well have fun in all state and West Side story next year. Who knows - maybe there'll be a Maria!
All my love,
Sherri '78'

Hello Rolf:
Glatch! Sorry you dropped out & do micro but you seem to be attending more now. So have fun over the summer & stay cool.
